I'm a professional bagel baker turned front-end web developer, fluent in React.js, TypeScript/JavaScript, HTML, and CSS. Known for my reliability, adaptability, and positive attitude, I approach challenges with enthusiasm and always strive to deliver exceptional results. While still early in my development career, I've already proven my skills and leadership as a Tech Lead, building and shipping a real-world product from the ground up.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Technologies: React.js, JavaScript, TypeScript, HTML, CSS, Tailwind, Node.js, PostgreSQL, Figma, Unix command line.

PROJECTS

Mappi - Personalized NYC Neighborhood Search

- Create customized groups of essential living criteria (e.g., proximity to dog parks, gyms, etc.). The app uses Google APIs to identify neighborhoods that match your preferences. React.js, TypeScript.

Griddle - Daily Art Challenge

- Users sign in to receive a random daily prompt, create pixel art based on the prompt, and post their creations to the main feed. React.js, TypeScript.

MarkIt - Bookmark Hub

- Easily and quickly access, edit, or delete your favorite bookmarked links all within one app! React.js, TypeScript.

Think! - Trivia Quiz Game

- Inspired by Trivia Crack, Think helps you sharpen your trivia skills in all mainstream categories. React.js, TypeScript.

Pup Progress - Dog Training Program

- Choose either a chapter-based training program or go freestyle to pick and choose specific tricks to teach your dog! React.js, TypeScript.
